Q1: How are students divided?

A: There are 2 age groups in the Mandarin Summer Camp – 7-9 years old and 10-15 years old. There is a placement test before classes start in which students will be placed into 3 different levels (Basic, Intermediate and High) according to the test results. Textbooks and class activities are both arranged according to different age groups. There are around 15 students in each class.

Q2: If we sign up for two sessions together, will the learning content overlap?

A: No. The textbooks arranged for the 2 sessions are different. If students plan to stay in Taiwan for a longer period of time, signing for 2 sessions is suggested since the whole Mandarin learning environment is all around students ready to grasp.

Q3: Do you offer lunch for students?

A: Students can choose to prepare their own lunch or order lunch from the school. The school provides a microwave oven for those who prepare their own lunch. If the students need the lunch service from the school, the fee is NT$1200 a session. Payment should be made along with the tuition.

Q4: What's so special about your program?

A: The Mandarin Summer Camp has a diverse curriculum. Class topics include Mandarin learning, Chinese culture appreciation, hands-on experience and field trips.
